T HAVE thus far examined Mr. Savage s test case from a theoretical standpoint. My theories, however, have all been based upon the well-known facts of experimental psychology, except where I have argued from a provisional assumption of the reality of the power of independent clairvoyance. I now approach the domain of ascertained facts. My text is still his declaration that telepathy deals only with occurrences taking place at the time. 1 If it had been stated that telepathy deals only with occurrences taking place at the time of the delivery of a message concerning them to the subjective mind...
