The best company, Johnny! The poor mail tried to smile gratefully, though tears would come, for the Johnny Load ringing cheers from strong men, waving their hata in token of Atlieu. --p, 115. The Emigrant. had touched his heart. A word spoken in due season how good is it! Then a quickened movement on the part of the sailors and porters, and then a hoarse voice speaking from the deck of the steamer. Then a bell rung, and there came a sudden rush to the waters side. In that wild sweep Allie was borne from Mrs. Clears side, though the latter tried to keep her hold, and carried forward. Terrified and struggling, gasping for breath, she would have been thrown down and trampled upon but that suddenly she was lifted up tenderly and reverently from behind high above...
